

ABSTRACT

An extension of the industry standard Wiegand protocol for enabling two way extended communication, enhanced error detection, encryption, multiple reader capability, and enhanced information regarding the embedded data stream between a Wiegand device such as a card reader and a control panel on the existing 5-wire bus structure without requiring the modification to the existing infrastructure.